A DIPLOMATIC ANSWER.—The old man Smith, of Richfield is a self sufficient sort of old fellow, and prides himself upon his riding abilities. One day he espied his young hopeful leading a colt to water rather gingerly, and

"Why on earth don't you ride that beast?"
"I'm 'fraid to-'fraid he'll throw me." "Bring that horse here," snapped the old

The celt was urged up to the fence and braced on one side by the boy, while the old man climbed on to the rails and stocked himman climbed on to the rails and stocked himself on the colt's back. Then he was let go, and the old gentleman rode proudly off. Paralyzed by fear, the colt went slowly for about twenty rods without a demonstration. Then like lightning his four legs bunched together, his back bowed like a viaduct arch, and the his back bowed like a viaduct arch, and the old man shot up in the air, turned seven separate and distinct somersaults and lit on the small of his back in the middle of the road, with both legs twisted around his neck .-Hastening to him, the young hopeful anxiously inquired:

"Did it hurt you, pa?" The old man rose slowly, shook out the knots in his legs, brushed the dust from his cars and hair, and rubbing his bruised elbows growled:
"Well, it didn't do me a dam bit of good.

You go home."

A Constantinople correspondent of the Paris Univers states that a few years ago the body of a young girl of a rich Greek family in that city was interred in the Greek cemetery, dressed to rich silks and sating, with all her jewels, which were of great value. A few months afterward the body was exhumed for deposit in a family vault which had been purchased, and was found entirely stripped of both clothing and jewels.

ICE CREAM, SODA WATER, &c. ICE CREAM.

My Ice Cream Manufactory, one of the largest in Virginia, still continues to supply private customers, Sunday schools, excursions, picnics, fairs, festivals and associations, as well as the trade, with that SUPERIOR CREAM that has made a name in this community, and is known everywhere as BRENGLE'S ICE CREAM. 1 could easily reduce its price by lowering its quality, but good cream, of fresh, pure, wholesome ingredients, cannot be furnished at a less price than I serve it. Of course, I could "grade my cream by the price," but my cream would lose the good name that years of fair dealing have won for it. I ask that persons abroad ordering 'Brengle's Cream' from third parties will assure themselves that the cream sent is certainly from my establishment. I warrant my cream, and do not wish that inferior cream, sent out as mine, may injure its reputation. It is my aim to furnish the BEST CREAM IN AMERICA, and my customers are satisfied that 1 do so. je 3-tf HENRY BRENGLE.
